

High Ranked Universities

GEC Students have been accepted at over 200 different institutions of higher learning in the USA and abroad.

GEC University Consortium

All participating universities offer GEC graduates scholarships that cover up to 40% of tuition, and many waive the TOEFL and SAT requirements.

Whether students opt to earn their full under-graduate degree abroad, or to take only a year or two of international education, GEC helps with academic counseling, applications, travel related logistics, and student support during their stay.

Higher Learning

Primary school is just a preparatory step to secondary school, but both are important preludes to get ready for higher education, where students specialize their knowledge and attain qualifications for credibility in the adult professional world. The Global English Campus education track and a high school diploma earned through us provides the foundation to enter a solid University?

After many years and thousands of international student graduations, let the record speak for itself. Thousands of our students have gone on to achieve great things through many reputable universities in the USA and abroad.
